PROHIBITION ENDS AT LAST!

Little Old New York joined its Bourbon claim last night after 13 long years of "aridity" with a joyous crowd fiesta. It began when President Roosevelt in the form of a proclamation tossed out the first legal "high ball." How the town caught on! No fumble there! The whole hailcock of the five boroughs went avidly to its fate. There were 1,000 places "inside the law" where one could say "A water snake" or "Cherry" or "Shake."

And here's the Beyond...
James Earl Smith

And there were other thousands who had been...
The repeal of Prohibition...
The whole town...

The whole town...
